How can internationals be integrated?

- For the press WG it would be difficult to work in English as mainly German media are addressed.
- On the other hand the press WG has close contact with international press people and these contacts have to be maintained. Thereby internationals could be integrated. There is also a huge English press list for networking of international press people.

- People can be integrated into the WG anytime, also shortly before the action
- How can internationals be integrated?

Integration of internationals can be helpful if they have ideas/contacts to foundations/organisations which can co-finance the action

- It would be partly difficult, but not impossible to have the communication via email and telephone in English
- If the person is responsible for financial acquisition in her country, it would not be necessary to take part in every telephone conference
